Research Access

Access to GNRHS archives is supported by volunteer staff and can be scheduled in advance for research purposes by contacting archives@gnrhs.org. Research is encouraged and supported to the extent volunteer staff and resources are available. Once approved by the on-site GNRHS Manager objects, images and other material may be copied, photographed or scanned. GNRHS may charge additional fees to pay for the cost of research time, administrative costs, photography, photocopying, and mailing requested by patrons. The GNRHS Collection Management Policy and the Operations Manual govern research access and procedures. More information is available at GNRHS.org

Payment

Payment may be made via our donations page. Please contact our Archives or Store people (as appropriate) before paying, to ensure what you need is available and in the desired form.

Other Requests will be handled on a case-by-case basis.

Waiver of fees: GNRHS Archivist or Archives Committee members or the GNRHS Store Manager may waive all or part of the charges at their discretion.
